

DATABASE MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS
CS 426-1B
FALL 2004

- Instructor: John Ranelli
113 Campbell Hall 934-2213
ranelli@cis.uab.edu
- Office Hours: Monday and Wednesday 10:10 - 11:10
Tuesday and Thursday 2:30 - 3:25
or by appointment
- Course Objective: To introduce the student to the relational database model, the SQL data manipulation language, DBMS architecture and utilities, database design and issues of security and integrity.
- Prerequisite: CS 303 (Algorithms and Data Structures)
- Exams: There will be four class exams.
THERE ARE NO MAKEUP EXAMS.
- Required Text: An Introduction to Database Systems, Eighth Edition;
by C. J. Date, published by Addison-Wesley
- Grades: Course grades will be determined as follows:
- |                                |     |                     |
|--------------------------------|-----|---------------------|
| Assignments and Course Project | 24% |                     |
| Exam I                         | 19% | Wednesday, Sept. 15 |
| Exam II                        | 19% | Monday, Oct. 11     |
| Exam III                       | 19% | Monday, Nov. 8      |
| Exam IV                        | 19% | Monday, Dec. 6      |

Class Policies

Students must be present for ALL exams.

There are NO makeup class exams or lab exams.

All cellular phones must be turned OFF during class or lab.

All pagers must be set to SILENT mode during class or lab.

The last day to withdraw is Wednesday, October 20. It is the responsibility of the student to deliver drop forms to the office of the registrar.

Class begins at 9:05. Please be ready to begin class at that time.
Arriving late or leaving early is very disruptive to the class.

Food is not allowed in class.