

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Department and Course Number CS 491 Course Coordinator Bryant

Course Title Special Topics Total Credits 1-3

Current Catalog Description
Special topics.

Textbook
Varies, depending on the subject. Often there is only a collection of research papers.

References
Research papers on the Internet

Course Goals
The goal of this class is to allow undergraduate students to learn a subject which is not currently covered in other courses. Often this class becomes a regularly offered class in a future term.

Prerequisites by Topic
Permission of instructor as topics vary with subject.

Major Topics Covered in the Course
Varies with subject but usually advanced topics not yet part of the mainstream curriculum.

Laboratory projects (specify number of weeks on each)
Varies, depending on the subject.

Estimate CSAB Category Content

	CORE	ADVANCED		CORE	ADVANCED
Data Structures	_____	_____	Computer Organization and Architecture	_____	_____
Algorithms			Concepts of Programming Languages
Software Design	_____	_____		_____	_____

Oral and Written Communications
Usually none.

Social and Ethical Issues
Usually none.

Theoretical Content
Varies by subject.

Problem Analysis

Varies by subject.

Solution Design

Varies by subject.